

Designing a Framework for Achieving Superior Energy Performance
In US Manufacturing Plants

March 6, 2007

10 am-5 pm

L'Enfant Hotel, 480 L'Enfant Plaza SW, Washington, DC

Agenda

- 10:00am Welcome and Introductions–
- Paul Scheihing, US Department of Energy
Elizabeth Dutrow, US Environmental Protection Agency
Carroll Thomas, US Department of Commerce
Lane Hallenbeck, American National Standards Institute
- 10:20am Purpose of Meeting Paul Scheihing, US DOE
- 10:30am How did we get here? Texas industry perspective
Gary Faagau, Tesoro Energy
- 10:45am Proposal for Achieving Superior Energy Performance
- Energy Star Plant Brad Reed, Toyota Motor Manufacturing
 - Partner Plant Joe Almaguer, Dow Chemical
 - Certified Plant Fred Fendt, Rohm and Haas Company
- 11:15am Panel Discussion: Industry Speaks
- Steve Schultz, 3M Company, Moderator
Joe Ghislain, Ford Motor Company
Sean Diamond, Texas Petrochemicals
Don McConnell, Dupont
- Noon Instructions for Afternoon Breakout Groups
- 12:15pm Lunch
- Speaker: John Mizroch, Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary, Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy, DOE
- 1:30pm Breakout Groups Convene

3:00pm

Break

3:30pm

Reconvene Plenary Session

- Report from breakout groups on findings
- Establishing a structure to move forward
- Next Steps

5:00

Adjourn